Turning A Page

What better thing to do on a snowy day, than to watch the snow drift down while enjoying our indoor spaces with some reading or a crossword, with family, with playing some games, or simply with some recuperation time from the holiday season?

You, my readers, have provided me much by way of confidence and faith, allowing me to produce what I hope is a fine-standing publication for your reading pleasure. The articles, pictures, resources and comments that have been provided over time make creating the Ramshaven Herald an honour and a pleasure.

I would now like to ask for a Deputy Chronicler, as an expanded team brings new ideas, richer articles, and fun for all!

The coming year, I hope, will continue to bring hope and happiness, and, of course, more projects to discover, or discover need finishing. Take, for example, the Canton of Bryniau Tywynnog's banner project - we still have a couple of banners to make! I'll just put the draft drawings here...

As we turn the page on 2015, and look to 2016, I look forward to continued service.

I also hope you like the crossword! Multi-word answers have spaces
